What is a Friend?

Friends of the Plymouth Library help the library by:

- Raising funds through book sales;
- Supporting programming for children, teens and adults;
- Advocating for the library throughout the community;
- Attending board meetings.

Who is a Friend?

Anyone with an interest in libraries may join the Friends of the Plymouth Library. Memberships are good for one calendar year.

Benefits of Being a Friend

When you join the Friends of the Plymouth Library, you receive:

- The satisfaction of working with others to enhance library services
- Invitations to special events
- The Friends of the Plymouth Library periodic eNewsletter with library happenings and a coupon for 1 free book at the next book sale
- One hour pre-shopping at book sales

A library is not a luxury, but one of the necessities of life.

- Henry Ward Beecher

The Friends Network

The Friends of the Plymouth Library is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization dedicated to our community library, allowing more programming for children, teens, adults, and retirees. Local Friends groups partner with the Friends of the Hennepin County Library, sharing the common mission of supporting the Plymouth Library and the Hennepin County Library.

Libraries are not made; they grow.
